

Manager is a family of consultant products that ensure access to senior management advice in any high growth industry during a predefined number of hours per quarter.

Manager ensures access to senior management advice as planned or ad-hoc meetings. The meetings could be in-person or virtual, on site or customer visits. The access to senior management advice is based on availability, but Novexus will do our utmost to satisfy each client.

The senior management advice could be in the areas of:

- General management advice for high growth industry.
- Review and/or conduct due diligence of a company and/or any project.
- Business planning, strategic review, and tactical action planning.
- Assist in assessing business expansion and potential partner arrangements.
- Setting up performance program and incentive plans for entities and/or employees.
- Other specific topics that are in focus for the individual client.

Manager 12, ensures 12 hours of management availability per quarter.

Manager 24, ensures 24 hours of management availability per quarter.

Manager 48, ensures 48 hours of management availability per quarter.

The approximate # of hours used will be reported monthly and will be reconciled at the end of the quarter. Any client needs to purchase a minimum of 3 quarters and the product will be invoiced in advance of each quarter.
